OUR WEEKLY RECIPE
Pepper and Cream Cheese Salad —Get some green or red peppers, medium size; cut off the small end, remove the inside, and wipe them out. Fill them with cream cheese, wet with with cream and well seasoned, and press down very firmly.
Set on ice till very cold and then with a sharp knife cut them across, making slices of cream cheese with an edge all around each one of pepper. Lay on lettuce and cover with French dressing.

Date and Nut Jelly—Wash the dates, stew till tender, take out the stones, add half as many English walnuts, put into a mould and cover with lemon jelly.

LIVELY TIME ON VINE ST.

A lively mix-up in which Floyd Stevens, Charley Lyman and Officer Hough were the participants occurred Sunday afternoon at the corner of Vine and South Main street. As a result Stevens was fined $50 and costs and committed to jail in default of payment.

The start of the fight occurred about 4 o'clock on the corner of Vine and Mulberry streets. Lyman, who was drunk, was walking west and calling names to people as he passed them.

When he came to the corner, he hurled an oath at Stevens and the latter naturally took it up. They were separated and Lyman crossed over and started to walk up towards Main street.

Stevens followed and Lyman recrossed, so that he reached a spot in front of Brining's news stand. Stevens felled Lyman there, inflicting an ugly gash in his head.

A call was sent the police and Officer Hough responded. He overtook Stevens on South Main street in front of the Rawlinson grocery. Stevens immediately resisted arrest and struck at Officer Hough according to the story. The latter finally overpowered him and took him up to jail.

Stevens was arraigned before Acting Mayor George S. Harter Monday morning on a charge of resisting and assaulting an officer. On this charge he was given the fine mentioned above and committed to jail.
